Austrian Bid For CHS Eagle Band

Response Good To Rec Program

BY CAROL CRAIN
More than 355 city children have signed up for the Canyon Summer Recreation Program with registration being taken until June 1. Parents wishing to register their children between now and June 1 may send in their children's names and a check for the program, $4 for the first child, $2 for the second, and $1 for the others, to Sam Weaver, program director at 2522 11th Ave.

Weaver would also like for parents to indicate whether the children would prefer to attend sessions on Monday and Wednesday or Tuesday and Thursday.

The eight-week program will end July 29. Participating children must be at least five years of age. Each class will break into different age groups and will then have a leader for each group.

Leading the swimming sessions from 11 to 11:45 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. will be Marilyn Bourland, WSI; Terri Donaven, WSI; Becky Price, WSI; Jerri Brockman, aide; Helen Rios, aide; and Alta Hale, aide. The swimming classes, beginning, intermediate, and advanced, will be taught at the City Pool.

From 1 to 2 p.m. a story hour will be held at Conner

Park with Carol Mathis and Alta Hale.

Art class with Andy Wilks in charge will be held in a place to be announced from 2 to 3 p.m.

Drama will also be taught from 2 to 3 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church by Sandee Smith and Carol Mathis. From 3 to 4 p.m. twirling and cheerleading will be taught in Conner Park.

Gymnastics will be instructed at the WTSU girls' gymnasium from 4 to 5 p.m. by Donna Duffek, Dana Donnell, and Mollie Condon.

Tennis will be taught at the WTSU courts by Alton (see REC, page 6)

Votes Light Tuesday

Randall County voters in a light turnout supported only one of the four proposed amendments during an election Tuesday.

Out of 20,508 registered voters in the county, only 2,195 cast votes Tuesday. Amendment Four, tagged the clear water amendment by its proponents, carried 1,207 for to 959 against.

The amendment had been endorsed by the Canyon City Commission and the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

The other three amendments were defeated. Amendment 1 fell 1,024 for to 1,144 against; amendment 2 was defeated 920 for and 1,231 against; and amendment 3 had 984 for, and 1,188 against.

Sam Weaver, program director for the Canyon Summer Recreation Program, discusses the program with Mike Weaver and Kirk Weaver in front of a building.

From Tax Assessor

Court Won't Buy Proposal

BY MARGO CRABTREE
Randall Commissioners turned thumbs down on an evaluation proposal advanced Monday by the County's Tax Assessor-Collector.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, assessor-collector, voiced concern over the differences in apartment appraisals and suggested a uniform land evaluation. She proposed 25 cents per square foot on land for all apartments built in South Amarillo since 1965 regardless of location.

"We have compared rentals, prices of rentals, and other items about the apartments in South Amarillo," Mrs. Bruse explained, "and we believe it would be fair to just appraise all apartment land at 25 cents per square foot."

She told commissioners that she was making the study in preparation for the meeting of the Board of Equalization this summer.

She also proposed that the buildings would be evaluated by construction with figures running from $7.50 to $11.

"You mean we would evaluate all apartment land at 25 cents per square foot, no matter where it is?" quizzed Commissioner Glenn Dowlen.

Mrs. Bruse answered affirmatively adding that this figure would increase some evaluations and decrease others. She stressed this would not include older apartments.

"We are going to have to prove that all land is of the same value if we are ever asked," Dowlen said. "And I don't think we can make it stand up that all land is equal."

Commissioner Jim Fletcher said under this type of evaluation companies, such as oil companies, could come to the Board of Equalization asking for the same type of evaluation for filling stations.

"And they would be justified in doing so," Fletcher said.

"No, I believe there is a difference between filling stations and apartments," Mrs. Bruse defended, pointing out corner lots as part of her argument.

"I want to treat everyone fairly," Mrs. Bruse said, "and I want to get the apartments equal."

She pointed out that she did not feel there would be too much difference in land costs of the apartments she was discussing in the southwest part of Amarillo.

Commissioners did agree that if land is being evaluated by the acre, it needs to be reevaluated on a front foot-

Director Awaiting More Information

BY TROY MARTIN

Canyon High School's Eagle Band has been invited to represent this area at the International School Band Festival in Vienna, Austria, in July of next year.

The invitation — climax of scores of honors heaped on the Eagle band over the past several years — came in a telegram to Band Director J. W. King Tuesday.

It was tendered by Dr. William B. Revelli, musical director for the festival through Dr. Warren Freeman of Westbrook Educational Foundation North American festival representative.

Dr. Revelli is director of bands at the University of Michigan. He is dean of US band directors and one of the top men in the field internationally recognized as such.

The invitation was hailed here as an honor of the first magnitude. King said that although he has yet to receive complete details, he is certain that the Vienna festival will include school bands from all over the world.

Text of the invitation is as follows:

"Dr. William B. Revelli, musical director, International Band Festival, Vienna, Austria, July, 1972, has asked me as festival committee chairman to invite you and your band to participate in this event as official representative of your area. Details follow shortly from Westbrook Educational Foundation, North American festival representative, to assure your area of being represented by your band or an alternate if you cannot participate."

The message was sent by Dr. Freeman.

The Canyon band director is expecting more information momentarily. King said more information will be needed before an estimate on cost of the trip can be assessed.

Canyon High School has long had an outstanding band.

Last fall it received a University Interscholastic League Division I on marching. At the Berger Band Festival in March the band scored Division I in both concert and sight reading.

School Is Job Center

Canyon High School will for the third year be an employment center for students this summer.

Canyon school board took action on the matter at a regular meeting Tuesday night. Students attending the Tuesday night meeting reported that jobs for students are harder to find this year.

Anyone with information on jobs available to students should contact Canyon High School administrative office.

Baccalaureate Service Sunday

Baccalaureate services will be held for Canyon High School seniors and their guests at 8 p.m. Sunday in the high school auditorium.

Rev. Bill Foil, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, will speak, and Rev. J. Frank Peery of the First United Methodist Church of Canyon, will give the invocation and benediction.

High School Mixed Choir and the Boys Choir will provide music during the ceremonies.

Graduation will be held Friday, May 28, in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Diplomas will be given by Dr. Dudley Moore, president of the school board, and board member Roscoe Richardson.

Bill Reynolds will give the valedictorian address and Bob Bullock will present the salutatorian address.

WT Senate Slaps Student Petition

West Texas State University student senate rejected by an overwhelming majority last week a petition asking that spring elections be set aside and new elections be held next fall.

School officials said the petition bore the names of some 480 students and was circulated by supporters of John Nathan "Nate" Stark, deposed student association president.

Reports from the closed session of the student senate said a quorum of about 20 members of that body were present and voted 18-2 to reject the petition.

The petition contended that since two of the students — Stark and Tom Rose — were found to have been illegally elected in the April student elections, then the entire results of the election should be thrown out.

This would have ousted all the successful candidates (see SENATE, page 6)

Insurance Dilemma Faces CISD Board

Canyon school board was told Tuesday night that liability insurance the school now carries is illegal but that under new legislation it could be held liable for bodily injury for which the school is at fault.

Cary Magness of the Hosea Foster Agency told the board the state has held that insurance companies must refund premiums on property damage liability insurance carried by governmental entities including schools.

As a result, he said, some insurance companies are refusing to pay claims until the matter is resolved.

School Supt. Jerry Jacobs noted that although carrying property damage and bodily injury liability insurance for the school had always been illegal, most of the schools in the state carried it anyway and state officials had permitted it. Insurance companies often issued riders on policies clearly waiving state immunity in any claim brought against them.

Canyon School District has been carrying both property damage and bodily injury liability insurance as far back as 1955.

Many of the "absolute necessities" that we have today were nonexistent fifty years ago.

Governor Preston Smith, center, signed enabling legislation for a hospital district in Randall County Precinct 3 last week. For Pilot Program

Team Lauds School

BY NELL WILLIAMS
An evaluation team from the Texas Advisory Council for Children with Learning Disabilities was "most complimentary," after visits to three schools in the Canyon district Monday, according to Mrs. Donna Forbes.

Mrs. Forbes is a member of the 12-person Council appointed by Gov. Preston Smith and a resource room teacher at Canyon Junior High School, where she works with students with learning disabilities.

Floyd McGahan, consultant to seven states in the field of detecting learning disabilities, told the Canyon teacher he was "impressed with the program here because it had some teeth in it."

Dr. P. W. Bailey, Council

chairman, said "The screening process in this area seems to be coming along quite well. We feel we must have early identification so we can apply particular methods of remediation."

Dr. Bailey stressed the Council's feeling that remedial help, not tutoring, is needed to help children in the program. These students have visual, auditory, or motor perception problems.

Dr. Bailey commended the area for its enthusiasm, leadership, and motivation.

Canyon's schools are among 12 chosen to establish pilot programs for working with youngsters who

CANYON RIM

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes Monday night on an Amarillo television station implied that he has support of Texas veteran organizations for his trip to Paris, Stockholm and Moscow to treat with the enemy.

The trip was publically blasted last weekend in a division American Legion convention by no less than Department of Texas Commander Bill Hester of Houston.

I had been in touch with the commander and read him this column from last week's Canyon News.

Hester lays it on the line.

"I think the trip will make a good vacation for the people who go," he declared. "I think it will be useless and I don't approve of it."

"The only thing those people (the communists) understand is power and it's time we show them that we are not a paper tiger."

Hester said he feels that we can secure the release of our prisoners only from a position of strength.

Governor Barnes is trying to assemble 1,000 Texans to make a trip to Paris, Stockholm and Moscow early in August on behalf of American prisoners being held by the North Vietnamese.

I have not said and do not say that Barnes' intentions are not good. I contend that the trip will serve the interests of the communists and that our soldiers held by them will remain in their cages.

I gave the same information to Clifford Teers, Texas commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, as I gave to Commander Hester.

Commander Teers was not as outspoken as Commander Hester although he said he personally agrees with my position last week in this column.

Commander Teers said he would not take an official position until the matter has been discussed with the executive board of his department. He said he has been invited to go on the trip but his decision on this also hinges on next month's meeting.

Governor Barnes told Panhandle people that he is going on the trip as a private citizen and not as lieutenant governor of Texas.

He said that some concessions have been gained from the North Vietnamese and the Vietcong by private delegations in the past.

I'd like to point out that these concessions — freeing of a prisoner or two — were granted to groups headed up by some of the same people arrested last week in the assault by leftwing rabble on this nation's capitol.

This bit of propaganda was played to the hilt by the so-called new left.

Some of the politicians to whom I've talked agree with me but they're going away because they are afraid Barnes will reap some political benefit and they won't be in on it if they don't go.

I realize I'm casting myself in the role of a villain. Just like you can't fight motherhood, it's hard to take a position against any effort being made for release of our prisoners of war.

I would do anything within reason to secure the release of those young men who have given so much for me and my family.

I don't think negotiations with the enemy by private citizens is the way to do it. I think it will have a reverse effect.

Spectacle of 1,000 Texans negotiating with the North Vietnamese and the Vietcong simply tells the world that Americans have no faith in their government or its ability to protect its soldiers.

Mrs. Iris Powers, herself the mother of a POW and special consultant to the US Army on matters concerning prisoners of war, advises that any pressure to be brought by private citizens should be brought to bear on the signers of the Geneva Convention.

"We are urging the public to write to the leaders of those countries that signed the Geneva Convention on humane treatment of prisoners of war and protest the treatment the enemy is giving our men," she said.

I think that although it would be more effective than a supplication to the enemy, even an appeal to the Geneva nations would do little good.

I still believe, along with Douglas McArthur, that the soldier should follow the flag and the flag should follow the soldier.

We can debate the Tonkin Resolution and America's right to be in Vietnam until doomsday but one thing is not debatable and that is our obligation to those men being held prisoners of war in Southeast Asia.

We put them there and under orders they were captured.

It is the obligation of the President to secure their freedom by what ever means at his disposal and at whatever risk necessary to the rest of us.

He is the man to whom Texans and Americans should take their petitions on behalf of POWs.

Correction

In last week's The Canyon News a story appeared reporting the West Texas State University Student Activities Center would remain open between the spring semester and the summer session.

Frank Castleberry, SAC director, said this week the center would be closed May 17 through May 29, and would reopen for the summer at 1 p.m. Sunday, May 30.

meals, insurance, etc.

Senators also get travel allowances and free mailing privileges while they vote to increase those rates continually for the rest of us. And the cost of their retirement benefits are almost incalculable.

Seventeen-year-old pages in the Senate are paid $7,380 a year. That is more than the income of the average public school teacher or farmer — the backbone of our nation.

Weary taxpayers are forced to subsidize the airlines. Yet half of them have never seen inside an airliner.

The airlines report they are losing money. How, then, can they afford to serve champagne to their passengers? And they reportedly pay some of their top executives $200,000 a year. How do they manage that?

Apparently, the airlines can afford to be extravagant because they expect the taxpayer to pick up the tab. But how many tabs can the taxpayers handle before their limited resources are exhausted?

Economic experts predict that American bankruptcy would precipitate a worldwide depression. If that is true, Americans who remember the Great Depression will be grateful to our creditors for not demanding their 20 billion dollars in gold against our remaining $10 billion in Ft. Knox.

Several experts on foreign affairs agree that it is not faith in the dollar or in our government that keeps our creditors from collecting their pound of flesh. The bulwark that stands between our nation and financial ruin is the world's faith in American productivity. (No nation wants to be cut off that gravy train).

The primary incentive for productivity is personal gain. The Democratic Party policy makers are urging that the already ruinous gift and inheritance taxes be increased to prevent wealth being disposed of in the manner pleasing to the man who accumulates it.

The Democrats are also asking for more liberal welfare programs than the lush ones proposed by the Nixon Administration. They want to reverse the command of Jesus, in Luke 19:26 by taking from him who has and giving to him who has not.

It would be a foolish man who would strive to accumulate money that he was aware he would not be allowed to keep. And foolish men are not noted for their productivity.

The world no longer respects our military, our money, or our government. But American ingenuity, and productivity are still respected, admired, envied, and emulated.

How long, however, under the policy of taking from the haves and giving to the have nots, will ingenuity and productivity survive?

Many of the men who gave us our nation paid for it with their lives. What are we willing to pay to preserve it?

Area Men Open Hog Operation

Hogs, sheds, feed, lots of room, and $350,000 is what it took to open a new company just south of Happy. Texas Tops, Inc. is a business of hogs: buying pigs, fattening them and then selling them four months later and 200 pounds heavier. The new business opened only three weeks ago under the directing hand of V.H. Harman, Jr. of Tulia. And the capacity crowd of 4100 pigs has just been reached.

Vernon Harman of Canyon, one of the four owners, said this week the pigs are housed in open type sheds on 40 acres of land five miles south of Happy. Just five acres is in use now, with 12 buildings presently constructed.

Twelve pens are located in each building, and 30 pigs can be put in each pen. "This means we can have around 360 hogs in each building, and we have 12 buildings," Harman said.

He explained that the pigs are fed milo in feeders which are open to two pens at a time.

"It is a real push button operation," Harman declared. "You can just push a button and feed pigs in one building at one time."

The plant is equipped with drainage systems, the automatic feeders and a circulating water system in addition to a mixing plant and truck. And all of it is operated by the younger Harman, a manager and three other men.

The pigs are purchased by Texas Tops when they weigh around 38 to 40 pounds, and are sold 120 days later weighing between 220 to 280 pounds.

"We buy the pigs locally," Harman explained as he mentioned Dimmitt, Floydada and other Panhandle towns.

"And we sell them generally to the south of us."

A pig's diet will consist primarily of milo with supplement, Harman noted.

Owners expect to turn out around 13,000 head of hogs yearly.

"We just want this to be a narrow margin business," Harman said, keeping an eye on the remaining 35 acres which can be used to increase their operation eight times its present size.

"V.H. is real happy with the size we have now," the older Harman said humorously. "We just want a steady operation, but we do have room for future growth."

The four owners, G.D. Railsback of Happy, and Larry Tackitt of Happy, and the two Harmans purchased the land from Weldon Jones. They scrutinized the land carefully, considering water, slope of the land, nearness to a highway, and closeness to Tulia, "so V.H. wouldn't be too far away."

Plans for the operation were finalized last spring, and nearly a year later pigs were being fed for fattening.

Harman said around $100,000 was spent on hogs, and the remaining costs were in feed and buildings on the land.

4-H Candy Sale Now Underway

Candy bars selling for $1 each are being sold by the Randall County 4-H members in order to raise funds for a Texas 4-H educational center.

The 4-H's will be selling the candy until May 28.

The proposed center is to be constructed on a site at Lake Brownwood, and will provide facilities for camping, leader training, citizenship seminars, leadership labs, international 4-H activities, project training and other extension service activities.

Dr. George B. Asquith prepares a display of orbicular granite. He and Dr. F. W. Daugherty have just completed a study of the rare formation.

Rock Study Read At Geology Meet

A paper authored by Dr. F. W. Daugherty and Dr. George B. Asquith was read at a meeting of the Rocky Mountain Section of the Geological Society of America Sunday in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Dr. Daugherty presented the results of a study made by the two, which was titled "Orbicular Rock, Sandia Mountains, Bernalillo County, New Mexico."

Dr. Daugherty is coordinator of Earth Science Research at the Killgore Research Center and a WTSU professor of geology.

Dr. Asquith is an assistant professor of geology.

Working with samples of rock taken from the Sandias, which are near Albuquerque, the two have been investigating a "dike" of the granite which contains concentric bands of other minerals, chiefly feldspar and mica.

The geologists believe that pieces of the granite making up the wall rock in the area fell into pools of magma (molten rock) and that currents in the magma caused abrasion of the pieces which ultimately moved out of the magma chamber under pressure and is found today as dikes of the orbicular granite running through the more common rock.

The dike at its widest is about two yards wide. It is about 100 yards long, said Dr. Asquith.

Dr. Asquith said that geologists know of 11 or 12 places in the United States where the orbicular granite may be found.

The two have submitted the paper to a geological journal for publication.

"Have your appraiser come up with some figures on the land values of these apartments we are talking about," Judge Woody Pond suggested.

"The appraiser has too much to do to just do research," Mrs. Bruse told commissioners.

"That's his job, isn't it?" Pond asked.

"Yes, but you know he has lots to do," she answered.

"Do the best you can do to get the appraisals in line," Commissioner Bill Butler encouraged. "But we shouldn't go on the 25 cents per square foot until that has been carefully checked."

Mrs. Bruse also said that a study of the truck schedules for Randall County showed the county should update the schedules.

Commissioners took no action on the matter.

In other action Monday, the board voted to donate $1500 to be used for hoses, pumps and other equipment by the Lake Tanglewood and Palisades communities toward a volunteer fire department.

Fletcher said around $400 has been raised by the communities to go toward the department, and "they need help in their efforts."

"I believe this will save the county money in the long run if our fire department does not have to make runs out there," Dowlen said.

Fletcher stressed that the fire department in the Palisades and Lake Tanglewood would also be used to fight grass fires in that area of the county.

He said at least one person from that area is expected to attend a volunteer fire department school at Texas A&M in June.

"The people out there seem to be extremely interested and enthusiastic about the department," Fletcher said.

Commissioners voted to purchase insecticide from Mantex Corporation, and a special price will be included with the price of the insecticide.

Most of the lengthy meeting was spent in reviewing the proposed county hospitalization insurance. No action was taken on the bids.

Bill Francis of Doshier, Pickens and Francis, C.P.A.'s of Amarillo, checked the audit report for 1970, and commissioners accepted the audit.

County Clerk Leroy Hutton said the City of Amarillo paid $985 for the rent of county voting machines.

became effective Jan. 1, 1970.

Magness told the board that the school's present insurance company will not renew its policy but he has arranged bodily injury liability coverage through another company.

Magness pointed out several problems arising for schools because of insurance limitations imposed by the state.

Although the school is forbidden to carry property damage liability insurance on its buses, he said, a driver of a bus involved in an accident still must show financial responsibility under another statute. For example, failure of the driver of a school bus to satisfy the financial responsibility statute could result in his losing his operators license.

Magness said this could make it necessary for each driver to carry his own extended non-ownership liability policy.

Magness said the state's enforcement of the immunity law could complicate driver education, taught in dealer-donated cars. Since the school no longer can maintain property damage liability, said Magness, dealers may have to secure such insurance on driver education automobiles.

Board members were told that new lighting for the high school football field will cost between $5,000 and $6,000.

Bob Phillips, business manager, was asked to get some estimates and bring them to the next meeting of the board.

Contracts of Philip Ehly, Floyd Guinn and James Wade, assistant coaches, were renewed. Resignation of Mrs. Mildred Gates was accepted.

Pleasant Valley Baptist Church of Amarillo purchased two old school buses with high bids of $1,077 and $658 respectively.

The school board agreed to meet twice monthly, the first and third Tuesdays, with one meeting a month set aside for discussion of some phase of the school program.

Jacobs told the board that the school will probably qualify for a vocational supervisor and may qualify for a full-time vocational counselor instead of a half-time counselor as at present.

"I have made application for an additional homemaking teacher, an additional agriculture teacher and an automotive mechanics unit.

The board approved a list of suits to be filed for delinquent taxes and discussed the school board's tour of school campuses last Friday.

have language and learning disabilities. The students chosen for the special training are all of normal or superior intelligence, said Mrs. Forbes, and none who have emotional disturbances are included.

Mrs. Forbes said that one facet of the local method which the committee members endorsed was the individual treatment accorded each child. "We teach through their strengths," she said. "Each child has his own special problems and needs as an individual. He requires his own plans."

The Council is to report to the 63rd Texas Legislature with recommendations for establishing programs for aiding children with learning disabilities. Pilot school systems have been devising methods for helping them through work with 6, 9, and 12-year-olds.

Other members of the Council who were in Canyon on Monday are Dr. Laurence Smith, president of the Texas Psychological Association, who is chairman of the evaluation committee, and Dr. Craig Wallace, a Littlefield optometrist.

The Council has four committees. In addition to the evaluation group, are those dealing with teacher training and certification, public awareness, and grants.

Reports from the meeting said the student senate based its rejection on the line of succession provided under the student government constitution.

The student supreme court May 6 ruled that Stark and Rose, elected president and vice president respectively of the student association, were not eligible to hold the offices.

The two were adjudged ineligible on academic grounds to be candidates in the spring elections. The court said Stark also lacked tenure at WT.

Chief Justice Dwight James cited fruit of the poisonous tree doctrine in handing down the decision of the court which ruled that the right of succession would prevail.

The ruling elevated Gary Blanset to the student body presidency. He had been vice president of the student senate.

Umberger News

BY SUSAN DOLLE

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Batenhorst celebrated their Silver Jubilee last Friday, May 14, with their families. In attendance at the Knights of Columbus Hall for the evening were Mrs. Batenhorst's brothers and sisters from Hereford and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Reinart. From Umberger came his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Batenhorst and other members of his family. Best man and bridesmaid at their wedding twenty-five years ago were Mr. and Mrs. Esodore Reinart.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Werner Henscheid and family from Grove Springs, Mo., and the John Voerwalds of Salida, Colo.

The Batenhorsts were also honored by their children: Mrs. Greg Stork, Don, and Gerald of Gruver; Mrs. Tom Callarman of Canyon, and Harold, Roger, and Brenda of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wieck and Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Raef return today from a 3-day state convention of the Knights of Columbus in Brownsville. The men represent the Umberger council as grand knight and past grand knight, respectively. En route the couples visited Helen Raef, who is attending college in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Friemel attended the graduation of their grandson, Ricky F. Friemel at Amarillo College's commencement last Monday. The son of Francis and Cloy Friemel, Ricky received an associate degree in applied science with a certificate in radiologic technology. In September, he will begin studies for hospital administration at Incarnate Word College in San Antonio. He is married to the former Carolyn Lyng.

Over thirty guests added to the festivities of the Pistols and Petticoats regular square dancing session Sunday night in the parish hall. In addition, those members taking lessons have begun to dance with the club. Twelve squares danced to the calling of Herrick Allen. The traveling banner was given to Ye Olde Squares of Amarillo while Tom Sanford was awarded the door prize.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine of St. Mary's Parish is planning a summer teaching course June 7-18. The two-week session is intended to prepare teachers to use new techniques in the religion classroom. Two classes will be given each night: kindergarten through grade two, and grade three through grade six. A class will be taught from 8 until 9 followed by a teacher evaluation workshop until 10:00. Chairman of the course is Mrs. Vincent Ramaekers.

We pay final tribute this week to a grand lady, Mrs. Clara Grabber, who died Monday. A stable and amiable person, this 74-year-old instilled pride and confidence in her children. Eleven children and 42 grandchildren will sorely miss their mother and grandmother who displayed many interests. In past years, she wrote letters to legislators and newspapers concerning vital issues. She was the pianist for the Grabber band, "The Jolly Six," who recently played for the telephone cooperative meeting. And lately, she was excitedly involved in preparations for her daughter Mary's wedding. Mrs. Grabber knew how to live and enjoy life; she was alive and sensitive to others.

Ballots in the election of five executive board members for Panhandle-Plains Historical Society will be counted at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning in the Panhandle-Plains Museum board room.

Supervising the counting will be Virgil Patterson, Amarillo banker who is the new president of the society.

Counting of the ballots will be open to the public, according to Patterson.

Group Seeks Movie Industry

A group of area people discussed means for attracting the movie industry to Palo Duro Canyon Monday night in a meeting in Amarillo.

The meeting was called by Jim Sorenson, who operates Six Gun City on the brink of the Palo Duro.

Some 14 persons attended and Sorenson said another meeting is to be called in the near future.

Sorenson plans to leave soon for a visit to movie locations in New Mexico.

Ricky Cook Signs Track Agreement

Ricky Cook, a state meet qualifier in the 100-yard dash, has signed an athletic scholarship agreement with West Texas State University track coach Bob Kitchens.

Cook ran a 9.7 100-yard dash and 21.4 in the 220 for the Tascosa Rebels. His time in the 220 is a Tascosa school record.

The little sprinter qualified for the state meet, but was forced to remain at home because of an ulcer.

school student during the investigations which led to the mass arrests.

Smith was specifically charged with selling her an LSD tablet Dec. 10, 1969.

Lee Chagra, well-known defense attorney from El Paso, pleaded with the jury that Smith was entrapped and in any event was only acting as an agent for Mrs. Cox in the LSD transaction.

Mrs. Cox was chief witness for the state and Smith testified in his own behalf.

Chagra followed the same pattern he used in defending Jamie Schomburg who was acquitted on a similar charge here in January.

Chagra was assisted by Bob Carnahan of Amarillo.

District Attorney George Dowlen argued that Smith had a "propensity to sell narcotics" and stoutly denied that he had been enticed into his trouble by the chief witness for the state.

Schomburg was sitting in the court room through most of the Smith trial.

Schomburg faces three other drug charges in Randall and Potter Counties. During his trial three months ago Schomburg was shorn, shaven and well-dressed.

At the Smith trial he sported raven locks and meandering sideburns.

"Will you shave and get a haircut for your next trial," the former Tascosa High School football hero was asked.

"Of course I will," the jaunty Schomburg replied.

Just as in the Schomburg case, cries of joy greeted the Smith verdict. Unlike Schomburg, Smith walked out of the court house a free man with no other charges facing him.

Women's Track Team Places 18

West Texas State placed 18th in Spokane, Washington, Saturday night in the national women's collegiate track meet.

Jo Meaker led the Buffaloes with a fourth in the long jump and eighth in the 200-meter hurdles. Gerri Brockman was sixth in the 440-yard dash and Vicki Vernon earned eighth in the 100.

Rene Cleveland, Jane Vandever, Miss Vernon and Miss Meaker combined to place eighth in the 880-yard medley relay.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

Congratulations to Tracy Erwin and Becky Bassinger who were elected cheerleaders for Canyon High for next year.

Gene Howe Elementary was graced with the presence of the Governor's Committee who was overlooking our facility and the L.L.D. program this week. Understand they also visited Brand "X" down in Canyon.

Welcome to the Tommy Thompsons, who have purchased the Carl Johnson home on Burlington Road. The Thompsons have four children, three of which will be at Gene Howe next year. The Carl Johnsons are now residents of Sunday Canyon and will ultimately build a lovely chateau overlooking one of the most scenic sights in the Canyon.

Understand the Bob Curlees spent a weekend at Lake Meredith recently.

The Bev Dampf family motored over to Santa Fe last weekend and their collie "Alteza Windstorm" walked off with the Best of Winners and finished his Championship. Congratulations to ya'll and I'm sure the doggie did his fair share.

It seems as though David Finke has lost a swarm of bees, would you believe 60,000 of them — each one about the size of a horsefly? The swarm was last seen at the intersection of Western and Mack. David says they will probably head for an open shed, a piece of farm equipment or an old house. He is offering a $3.00 reward for the swarm and so you call him if you find them — 352-2971. You better hope you find them before they find you, because if you don't — you're in for a real BUZZ.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the Walter Burks on Arden Road in the recent death of Walter's father. Also many of us extend our sympathy to the family of Dr. Don G. Ham, associate professor of Sociology at West Texas State University, who passed from this life this week. Dr. Ham related to the young people so well and his loss will be keenly felt.

DON'T TAKE YOUR EYES FOR GRANTED

There is much more to good vision than people realize. Better vision can mean greater ability in every aspect of life. Although under normal circumstances your eyes will serve you as long as you live, it is important that you protect them with proper care.

Periodic check-ups are a necessity whether you wear glasses or not. Avoid strain by having the proper glasses (if you need them). Use proper lighting when reading, working or watching TV. Protect your eyes against glare. Rest them when they are tired. Sometimes a soothing eyewash or eye-drops can be helpful. We carry many of them in our pharmacy.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US WHEN YOU NEED A DELIVERY. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.
